

2023

Santa Barbara County PINOT NOIR

Aromas of red currant, blueberry, and blood orange greet the nose, followed by subtle hints of bay leaf, white pepper, and wet stone. The palate is well-balanced, with just the right amount of tannin and acid, resulting in superb structure and a delightful mouthfeel.

Perennial top pick in the
Wine & Spirits Magazine
"Top of the List"
Restaurant Poll

2023

Santa Barbara County PINOT NOIR

Aromas of red currant, blueberry, and blood orange greet the nose, followed by subtle hints of bay leaf, white pepper, and wet stone. The palate is well-balanced, with just the right amount of tannin and acid, resulting in superb structure and a delightful mouthfeel.

Perennial top pick in the
Wine & Spirits Magazine
"Top of the List"
Restaurant Poll

2023

Santa Barbara County PINOT NOIR

Aromas of red currant, blueberry, and blood orange greet the nose, followed by subtle hints of bay leaf, white pepper, and wet stone. The palate is well-balanced, with just the right amount of tannin and acid, resulting in superb structure and a delightful mouthfeel.

Perennial top pick in the
Wine & Spirits Magazine
"Top of the List"
Restaurant Poll

2023

Santa Barbara County PINOT NOIR

Aromas of red currant, blueberry, and blood orange greet the nose, followed by subtle hints of bay leaf, white pepper, and wet stone. The palate is well-balanced, with just the right amount of tannin and acid, resulting in superb structure and a delightful mouthfeel.

Perennial top pick in the
Wine & Spirits Magazine
"Top of the List"
Restaurant Poll

2023

Santa Barbara County PINOT NOIR

Aromas of red currant, blueberry, and blood orange greet the nose, followed by subtle hints of bay leaf, white pepper, and wet stone. The palate is well-balanced, with just the right amount of tannin and acid, resulting in superb structure and a delightful mouthfeel.

Perennial top pick in the
Wine & Spirits Magazine
"Top of the List"
Restaurant Poll

2023

Santa Barbara County PINOT NOIR

Aromas of red currant, blueberry, and blood orange greet the nose, followed by subtle hints of bay leaf, white pepper, and wet stone. The palate is well-balanced, with just the right amount of tannin and acid, resulting in superb structure and a delightful mouthfeel.

Perennial top pick in the
Wine & Spirits Magazine
"Top of the List"
Restaurant Poll