40% Grenache

Vista Serrano Vineyard, Paso Robles

40% Mourvedre

Vista Serrano Vineyard, Paso Robles

20% Syrah

Rancho Arroyo Grande Vineyard, Arroyo Grande

The Grenache and Mourvedre grapes were sourced from the Vista Serrano Vineyard, located on the West side of Paso Robles in the Adelaida District. The soils at this hillside vineyard are rocky loam with limestone striated throughout. The Syrah comes from Rancho Arroyo Grande Vineyard is in the hills above the coastal Arroyo Grande Valley, located thirteen miles from the Pacific Ocean with fossilized marine soil.

The Vista Serrano Grenache and Mourvedre, were whole cluster pressed. The Syrah was de-stemmed and soaked on the skins before being pressed.

All the grapes were picked early for rosé. The Vista Serrano Grenache & Mourvedre lots fermented together in stainless steel tank and the Syrah was fermented separately and blended prior to bottling.

The rosé components were blended together in January, fined with bentonite and cold stabilized. The finished wine was bottled in early February.

The wine has a pretty pale rose-pink color. The aromas have white flowers and strawberries with layers of guava and watermelon, framed by minerals and herbs de Provence with the bright finish.
